

THE TEAM

Chef: Stéphane Laruelle

After graduating from hospitality management school, Stéphane Laruelle went on to study at the Ecole Supérieure de Cuisine Ferrandi (school of culinary arts) before working in turn at the Faugeron, Crillon and Grand Véfour restaurants as commis chef. He then submitted his application to Guy Savoy, who hired him at rue Troyon. Savoy next sent him as chef de partie to his restaurant Le Cap Vernet, and then to La Butte Chaillot, where he remained chef for seven years. He has been chef at Le Chiberta since 2007.

Associate director: Thierry Belin

His hospitality management degree under his belt, Thierry Belin left for London to work as commis waiter at the Savoy (a sign of things to come?!). He returned to France a year and a half later to pursue his career in a number of restaurants, including the Martinez hotel in Cannes and Le Bristol in Paris. He was hired in 2004 at Le Chiberta as maître d'hôtel, and this year took on the position of associate director. "I chose to work in the front of the house for the contact with guests. I feel at home at this Guy Savoy restaurant because the guests are truly pampered. I was impressed by the initiative of sending out a number of little extra dishes; I had never seen that anywhere else."

A RESTAURANT WITH GUY SAVOY AT 20 METERS FROM CHAMPS-ELYSEES

In 2004, Guy Savoy established a team a mere stone's throw away from l'Etoile and the Champs-Élysées. This prime location called for the expertise of his partner, Jean-Michel Wilmotte, to give Le Chiberta its informal club style.

Along the bottle-lined walls in the different rooms, you will discover contemporary works of art by Bertrand Lavier and Gérard Traquandi. From the Wine Room to the Bar, the transformable rooms allow for original adaptation for business lunches, theme dinners, cocktail dinners and personalised breakfasts.

In the hands of a team with the "Guy Savoy" spirit, directed by his associate Jean-Paul Montellier, and by Stéphane Laruelle in the kitchen, Le Chiberta overflows with imaginative treasures, both in the choice of wines and in the creation of the dishes.
